

CHINA TOWN HALL

Local Connections, National Reflections

CHINA Town Hall is a national day of programming on China involving 40 cities throughout the United States.

Hawaii's CHINA Town Hall will focus on China's response to the global financial crisis, and current opportunities and challenges in U.S.-China Trade Relations. The program will feature Dr. Robert Kapp, President of Robert A. Kapp & Associates, Inc. in Port Townsend, Washington. The firm provides consulting services to companies and nonprofits seeking to develop productive engagement with China or to engage with policy makers in U.S.-China relations. Dr. Kapp is also a member of the Executive Board of U.S.-China Policy Foundation; Council on Foreign Relations; National Committee on U.S.-China Relations; and the World Affairs Council. From 1994-2004, Dr. Kapp served as president of the U.S.-China Business Council, the principal national organization of major American companies engaged in trade and investment in China.

Dr. Kapp's talk will be followed by a live webcast by Kurt M. Campbell, Assistant Secretary of State for East Asian and the Pacific Affairs, discussing "Issues in U.S.-China Relations". Mr. Campbell was the CEO and Co-Founder of the Center for a New American Security (CNAS) and concurrently served as the director of the Aspen Strategy Group and chairman of the Editorial Board of the Washington Quarterly. He was also the founder of StratAsia, a strategic advisory firm, and was the senior vice president, director of the International Security Program, and Henry A. Kissinger Chair in National Security Policy at the Center for Strategic and International Studies. The live webcast program will be moderated by Stephen A. Orlins, President of the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations.
